

Terrie Sterling, MSN, MBA, RN, FACHE

Terrie Sterling is the interim CEO of University Medical Center, New Orleans. She formerly served as the Chief Operating Officer of Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center, where she was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the 800-bed regional medical center and Children's Hospital. A member of the Louisiana Board of Regents, Terrie was also appointed by Gov. John Bel Edwards as Co-Chair of the Resilient Louisiana Commission. Terrie has served on the Future of Nursing, Campaign for Action, Louisiana Action Coalition since its inception. She serves on numerous other boards and is an active member of many organizations. Terrie holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Northeast Louisiana University, a Master of Business Administration from Louisiana State University, and a Master of Nursing Science, from Loyola University, New Orleans. She is board certified in healthcare management as an American College of Healthcare Executives Fellow.