The achievement of health equity in the United States should be built on strengthened nursing capacity and expertise.
The Vision

The systems that educate, pay, employ, and enable nurses need to:

- Permanently remove barriers
- Value nurses’ contributions
- Prepare nurses to advance equity
- Diversify the workforce
Permanently Remove Barriers
The Vision:

Preparing Nurses to Advance Equity
Transforming Nursing Education

Preparing Nurses to Respond to Disasters and Public Health Emergencies

Fostering Nurse Well-Being
Diversifying the Workforce
Nursing schools need to intentionally recruit, support, and mentor faculty and students from diverse backgrounds to ensure that the next generation of nurses reflects the communities they serve.

Nursing accreditors can play a role by requiring standards for student diversity just like other health professions schools.
