

Rita Wray, MBA, RN, NE-BC, FAAN is the Founder & CEO of Wray Enterprises, Inc., a national independent health care consulting firm. Wray held a ten year gubernatorial appointment as a Deputy Executive Director of the Mississippi Department of Finance and Administration, which has primary responsibility for the management of the state's annual budget and provides asset management for a host of state owned property. This native of Florence, Alabama, holds a B S degree from the University of North Alabama and a M B A from Jackson State University. Entrepreneur, author and lecturer, her career path has lead to a successful marriage of healthcare and business. Wray is a nationally recognized consultant/facilitator in the areas of regulatory compliance, risk management, leadership development, organizational effectiveness and strategic planning.

Organizational leadership positions include International Women Forum Mississippi – President, International Ballet Competition – Board of Directors, Chamberlain University - Board of Trustees, the National Coalition of 100 Black Women – former National First & Third Vice President, National Black Nurses Association. – former Treasurer, Nurses on Boards Coalition – Treasurer, MS Public Procurement Review Board – Chairperson, MS Commission on the Status of Women – former Vice Chairperson, Mississippi Federation of Republican Women, Past President, Junior League of Jackson – Past Treasurer/Sustainer Board and a host of others. Wray is the recipient of varied leadership honors/awards – including Mississippi's top ten Leading Business Women. This member of St. Paul Catholic Church in Flowood, MS enjoys traveling, reading, light gardening and connecting with friends – old and new. Ms. Wray and her late husband Terrance, have three children - Terrance Jr. (Violet), Tamika (Matthew) and Torrance (Michelle).